Hate Crimes & Reporting Rights

What is a hate crime?

Crime + Motivation on committing crime based on bias = Hate crime

A hate crime is any criminal act directed against a person based on their:
- race or skin color,
- religion,
- national origin,
- gender,
- sexual orientation or gender identity/expression, or
- disability

What is a hate incident?

A hate incident is an action or behavior motivated by hate but which, for one or more reasons, is not a crime.

Examples of hate incidents:
- A subway passenger yells, “I hate Asian people!” while making aggressive gestures towards an Asian passenger.
- A shopper yells, “Go back to your country!” at an Asian person inside a supermarket.
- An individual yells at an Asian person, “Why don’t you speak English?! Learn to speak English or go back to your country!”

Hate Crime Reporting Options

Contact 911 or make a report at the police station.
If you experience language barriers, notify the operator, "I speak Thai." The operator will help to connect you to access Thai interpretation.

You can contact 211 or 311 to report a hate crime. 211 can alert law enforcement, homeless outreach support, social service, and mental health team to help respond to situations to ensure there is support in the local area.

Follow up this report with a tip to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
